

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

SHOW BACKGROUND:

Inspired by the film of the same name, Bring It On is a high-flying, energy-fuelled journey through the challenges and surprising bonds forged in the thrill of extreme competition.

It is written by Tony Award Winners Lin-Manuel Miranda (Hamilton, In The Heights), Jeff Whitty (Avenue Q), Tom Kitt (Grease: Live, Next to Normal) and Amanda Green (High Fidelity).

www.bringitonthemusicaluk.com

Selladoor Worldwide are looking for an Assistant Director to join the creative team for the UK Premier of this hit musical.

KEY DUTIES INCLUDE:

- Support the director in pre-production with research, script work and character tracks
- Assist the director through rehearsals
- Devise operating plans for show running alongside resident director
- Ensure cover system is in place correctly and securely once show is open

KEY DATES: October – December 2021, part time

The successful candidate will be asked to work a limited number of hours, with exact hours and dates flexible depending on the successful applicant's availability and other commitments.

You must be available 22nd-27th November (inclusive)

The role will primarily be in-person in London

FEE: £1,500

TO APPLY: Please send your CV and short cover letter (no longer than one A4 page) to joe@selladoor.com by midday 31st August 2021.

Please include your name and 'Bring It On AD' in the subject line.

We are keen to welcome artists currently underrepresented in the industry and actively encourage applicants from all backgrounds.

Please note all applicants must have the right to work in the UK.